

Trouble Signs To Look For

The following signs also came from the City of Albuquerque in their Internet Safety Town Hall.

- Your child spends large amounts of time online, especially at night.
- You find pornography on your child's computer [or cell phone].
- Your child receives phone calls from persons you don't know or is making calls, sometime long distance, to numbers you don't recognize.
- Your child turns the computer monitor off quickly or changes the screen on the monitor when you come into the room.
- Your child is using an online account belonging to someone else.
